

Rescue Preparations & Operations for Boaters in Distress

- A boater's perspective (Roy Soeigiarto)

Scope

1. Introduction
2. Real life experiences
3. Safety at sea is possible

A bit about myself...

Boating as a way of life

Started Maritime Tourism

Contributions to Coastal Safety and Security

Real Life Experiences (Search and Locate)

THE STRAITS TIMES

Missing Singaporean kayakers: Woman's son confirms her death

Find out what's new on ST website and app.

Mr Tan's wife, Madam Kwan Yoke Yee, as well as Madam Puah's son, Mr Louis Pang, help authorities identify their family members' belongings at Penyangong Jetty on Aug 14, 2019.

ST PHOTO: ARIFFIN JAMAR

DIVE
magazine

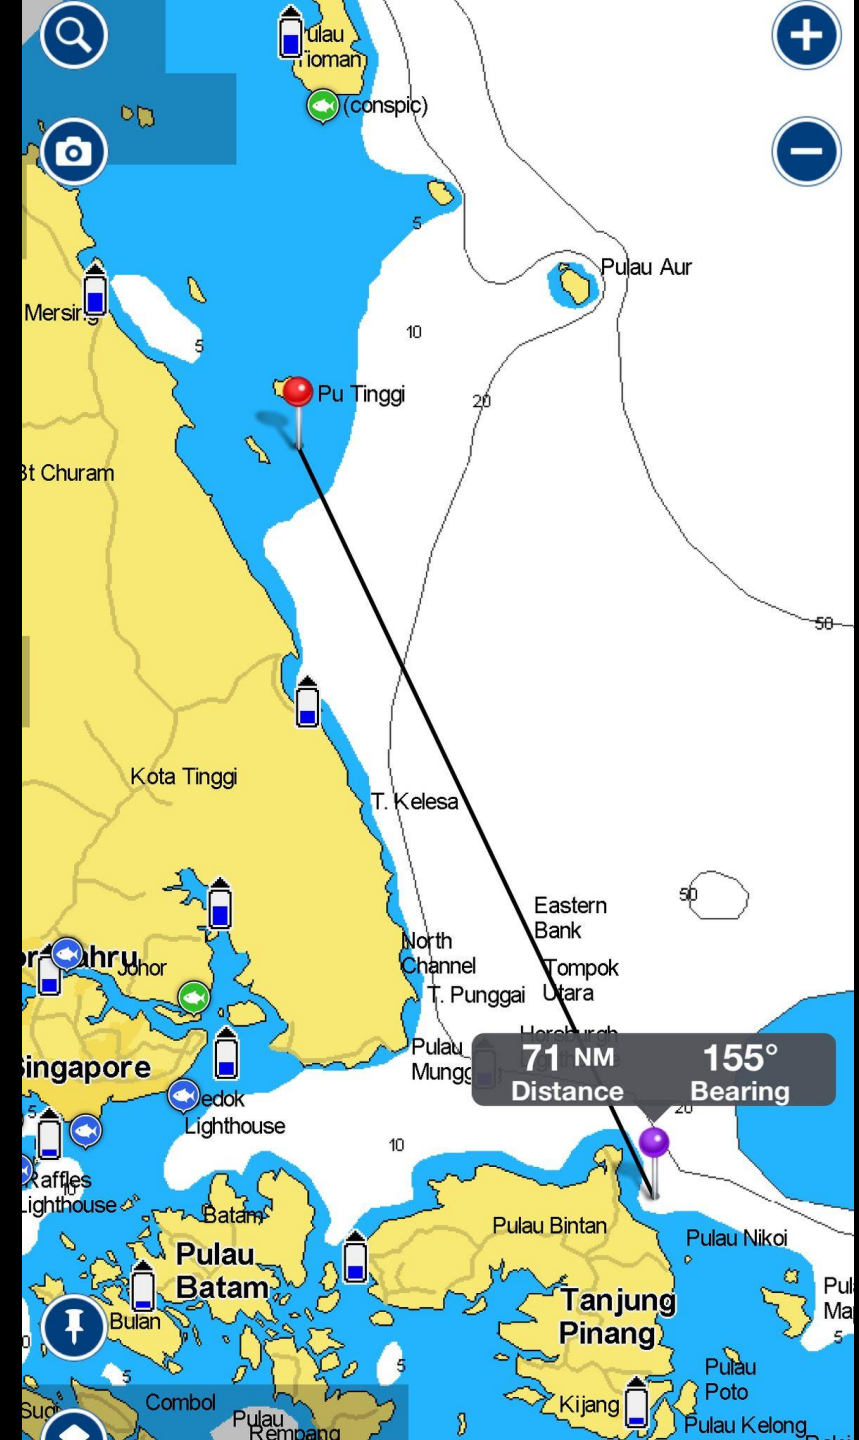

Family of teen who died after drifting for three days sue Malaysian dive resort

26 June 2024 8 minutes of reading

Nathen Chesters (left) and with his father, Adrian (Photo: Andrea Van Der Zee)

Local Search & Locate (Surface Search)

*“Treat each time at sea seriously,
- be ready for all emergencies
欺山莫欺水”*

- Roy Soeigiarto

What are the emergencies that we can expect at sea?

Items to bring for a Rescue Operation

- Rocket light
- Laser pointer
- Solar all around light
- Sea anchor
- Floating PP ropes
- Power bank
- Google maps
- Portable VHF

Types of Emergencies at Sea (Self and Others)

- Man-overboard
- Engines failures
- Fire
- Flooding
- Fatigues
- Grounding
- Collision

Ensure wearing of life jackets during emergencies

Damaged OBM

Barriers at sea

Be ready to be the first responder

Be ready to be the first responder (towing)

Check towing gears, ropes and securing points before commencing tow

Be ready to be the first responder (engine failure)

Be ready to be the first responder (grounding)

29 April 2023

6:46 PM

(We are) Small Boat,
(We can create) Big Impact

– helps others that are in need